Mr. Brenson is at present in Sumter, with his family, and we think, expects to spend the summer here. He has recently been renovating his residence in Kingstree, and Mr. Keayes has been doing some painting there, and setscaed a few days ago. This, we presume, gave rise to the Herald's item. While we would be glad to welcome Mr. Brunson back to Seinter as a permanent resident, we don't think he proposes to give up Kingstree for the present. The Herald is correct in its estimate of his worth to the community.
